245 0 0	Journal of a general store, in or near Merrimack, New Hampshire.
260	ꝯc 1851.
300	[144] p. ; ꝯc 41 x 19 cm.
500	Entries are dated from 1 January 1851 (p. [1]) through 24 May 1851 (p. [147]).
500	Each entry has a number written in the margin next to it, apparently the ledger account for the person, since the same number appears next to the same name in each case.
500	Pages are numbered in ms. 1-115, [2 blank,unnumbered], 116-142.
545	Many of the customers listed are also listed in the 1860 federal census of Merrimack, N.H.; the towns of Merrimack and adjoining Bedford, N.H., are also listed as customers. The journal appears to have belonged to a grocer and dry-goods merchant in or near the village of Reeds Ferry in Merrimack, as several of the customers can be located to that area.
563	Bound in quarter leather and brown paste-paper over pasteboards; endleaves are two bifolia at each end (two leaves pasted down, two free), with both free leaves at front and the second free leaf at back roughly torn out, leaving ragged stubs; the first free leaf at back has additional notes, dated between 10 January and 5 August 1851. A purchase note at upper left of the front pastedown is dated 6 January 1851, with the price either in code or illegible, presumably documenting purchase of the journal.
561	Owned by the Meekins Library, Williamsburg, Mass.
